1. Since 1950 the community of Novo Selo, located in the Strumica-Bevdelijska district of Macedonia, has been composed of the villages of Susica, Zubovo and Barbarevo. The following individuals were officials in the community of Novo Selo:
  - a. George Mesevski - chairman of the community
  - b. Vasil Kacarov - secretary
  - c. Casim Mustafaov - representative from Susica on the community council
  - d. Josif Damjanov - political secretary of the Communist Party cell in Susica. This cell had 20 members.
2. The collective in Susica was established in 1948; however, the peasants were not forced to join it until May 1950. During early August 1951, Casim Mustafaov was director of this collective.
3. The collective in Susica had nine worker brigades and it owned 100 sheep, 360 head of cattle and 30 milk cows. Three stables for the collective had been completed in 1940 (sic). Each working member in the collective was allowed 18 kilograms of corn per month; aged persons were each allotted 12 kilograms of corn per month, while children were given 6 kilograms of corn each per month.
